

1. The Competitor/Entrant hereby, on behalf of the Competitor/Entrant's team and persons for whom the Competitor/Entrant is responsible and Competitor/Entrant jointly and severally indemnify, hold blameless and absolve Motorsport South Africa, the Motorcycle Racing Series NPC (hereinafter MCRS") the MCRS Board, together with all officials, members, staff, marshals, stewards, employees, representatives, organisers, managers or any other persons involved, in respect of any claim for loss or damage howsoever arising and whether resulting from negligence or otherwise, in respect of any loss, injury or damage caused by or to Competitor/Entrant and/or the Competitor/Entrant's team and persons for whom the Competitor/Entrant is responsible and/or in respect of any claim of Competitor/Entrant and/or in consequence of participating in any form of activity during or relating to the event.
2. The Competitor/Entrant further on behalf of the Competitor/Entrant's members, staff, clients and itself, hereby waives and renounces any claim including claims for damages howsoever arising and whether resulting from negligence or otherwise, against aforesaid persons and bodies, in respect of bodily injuries, loss or damage to property whatsoever, suffered by itself and/or its members in consequence of participating in any form of activity during or relating to the event.
3. Motorsport and related activities are inherently dangerous and carry significant risk of personal injury or death. Any activities undertaken during or related to the event are at your own risk. The MCRS recommends that you do not participate in these activities unless you possess the standard of competence necessary, seek qualified instruction or guidance, are knowledgeable about the risks involved and are willing to, and do, personally assume all responsibility associated with those risks.
